

Parent Suspension/Expulsion Appeal Process

Parent/Guardian makes a written application for a review of the decision to the Principal and submit any new information they want to be considered during the review process.

The student may be kept in isolation or in a buddy class at school or asked to be kept at home whilst this process is completed.

The Principal considers the new information provided by the parents and reviews the decision.

The Principal may consult with the Board of Directors or seek advice from the AISNSW

The Principal has 2 working days to review this and seek advice.

The Principal either confirms the preliminary decision or amends the preliminary decision based on additional information provided

Parents are notified of the decision in writing, with the offer to attend a meeting for further discussion

If the Principal decides suspension or expulsion is not warranted, an alternate consequence such but not exclusive of

* Long Suspension (if Expulsion not warranted)

*Enrolment Withdrawal Warning letter with 4 week monitoring of behaviour and review.

If the Principal decides a suspension or expulsion is warranted the process continues as per suspension/expulsion process.
